111. Proxy voting in accordance with Clause 67 of this Constitution shall be allowed at State Congress, State Council and Special State Council Meetings.

Members attending State Congress, State Council and Special State Council Meetings

112. Any Ordinary member, Life member, Associate member, Second Member or Honorary member may attend any State Congress, State Council and Special State Council Meeting.

Special State Council Meetings

113. The State Executive may, where it thinks fit, convene a Special State Council Meeting of the Association, and where, but for this sub clause, more than fifteen (15) months would elapse between State Congresses, shall convene a Special State Council Meeting before the expiration of that period.

114. The State Executive shall, on the requisition in writing of Sub-Branches representing not less than 50 per cent of the total number of Sub-Branches, convene a Special State Council Meeting of the Association.
115. The requisition for a Special State Council Meeting shall state the objects of the meeting and shall be signed by two members of the Executive of the Sub-Branches making the requisition and be sent to the address of the State Secretary and may consist of several documents in like form, each signed by the two members of the Executive of the Sub-Branches making the requisition.
116. If the State Executive does not cause a Special State Council Meeting to be held within one (1) month of the date on which the requisition is sent to the address of the State Secretary, the Sub-Branches making the requisition, or any one of them, may convene a Special State Council Meeting to be held not later than three (3) months after that date.
117. A Special State Council Meeting convened by the Sub-Branches in pursuance of these rules shall be convened in the same manner or as nearly as possible as that which those meetings convened by the Executive.

State Congress

118. The Association shall in each calendar year, convene a State Congress of its members.
119. The State Congress shall be convened on such a day in February of that calendar year as the State Council determines.
120. The State Congress shall be specified as such in a notice convening it.
121. The ordinary business of the State Congress shall be;
 - a. To confirm the minutes of the last State Congress.
 - b. To receive from the Executive reports on the transactions and business during the last financial year.
 - c. To elect the Executive of the Association.
 - d. To receive and consider the statement of the Association in accordance with Section 30(3) of the Act.
122. The State Congress may transact special business of which notice is given in accordance with this Constitution.
123. The State Congress shall be in addition to any other State Council or Special State Council Meetings that may be held in the same year.

Proceedings at State Congress, State Council and Special State Council Meetings

124. No items of business shall be transacted at any State Congress, State Council or Special State Council meeting unless a quorum of Members entitled to vote under this constitution is present during the time when the meeting is considering that item.
125. A quorum for the transaction of business at any State Congress, State Council or Special State Council Meeting shall comprise of those ordinary members present at the commencement of the advertised meeting.
126. If, within half an hour after the appointed time for the commencement of any State Congress, State Council or Special State Council meeting, a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of Sub-Branches, shall be dissolved and in any other case shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and (unless otherwise specified by the Chairman at the time of adjournment or by written notice given to Sub-Branches before the day to which the meeting is adjourned) at the same place and if at the adjourned meeting, the quorum is not present within half an hour after the appointed time for the commencement of the meeting, the Members present (not being less than 5) shall be considered a quorum.
127. The President or, in his absence, one of the Vice Presidents shall preside as Chairman at each State Congress, State Council or Special State Council Meeting.
128. If the President and Vice Presidents are absent from the meeting, the Council Members present shall elect a Member present to preside as chairman for that meeting.

129. The State Secretary, or other executive member as designated at the time, is responsible to take and keep accurate minutes of all State Congress, State Council and Special State Council meetings.
130. The Chairman of a State Congress, State Council and Special State Council meeting at which a quorum is present may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time and place to place, but no business shall be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting at which the adjournment took place.
131. Where a meeting is adjourned for fourteen (14) days or more, a like notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of the State Congress, State Council or Special State Council Meeting.
132. Except as provided in clause 131 above, it is not necessary to give notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.
133. A question arising at a Special State Council Meeting of the Association shall be determined by a show of hands and unless or on the declaration of a show of hands, a poll is demanded, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has, on the show of hands, been carried or carried unanimously or carried by a particular majority or lost, and an entry to that effect in the minute book of the Association is evidence of the fact, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of, or against that resolution.
134. Where a resolution, being a resolution without notice, requires the commitment of finance from Sub-Branches, that resolution shall not be binding on the Sub-Branch until the Delegate has gained the approval of that Sub-Branch, or the meeting has the approval of the Sub-Branch to commit funds of that Sub-Branch.
135. If at a meeting a poll is demanded by not less than 50 per cent of the Members present, it shall be taken at that meeting in such manner as the chairman may direct and the resolution of the poll shall be deemed to be a resolution of the meeting on that question.
136. A poll that is demanded on the election of the chairman or on a question of an adjournment shall be taken forthwith and a poll demanded on any other question shall be taken at such time before the close of the meeting as the chairman shall direct.

PART 7 – FINANCIAL MATTERS

Source and Management of Income

137. The funds of the Association shall be derived from annual capitations from Sub-Branches, donations, grants and income derived from business conducted under a trading name(s), and, subject to any resolution passed by the Association in State Council or Special State Council Meetings, such other sources as the State Council and Special State Council Meeting determines.
138. All monies received by the Association shall be deposited as soon as practicable and without deduction to the credit of the Association's bank account(s).
139. The Association shall, as soon as practicable after receiving any money, issue an appropriate receipt.
140. The income and property of the Association, whencesoever derived, shall be applied solely towards the objects of the Association set forth in this constitution and no portion thereof shall be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of profit to Ordinary members of the Association provided that nothing shall prevent the payment in good faith of reasonable and proper remuneration to any Ordinary member of the Association or to any other person, in return for goods or services actually rendered to the Association, nor prevent payment of interest at a rate not exceeding the rate charged by bankers in the State of Victoria on overdraft, accounts on any money lent or reasonable and proper rent for premises demised or let to the Association by any Ordinary member but so that no Ordinary member of the Association shall be appointed to any salaried office of the Association, or any office of the Association paid by fees, and that no remuneration or other benefit in money and money's worth shall be given by the Association to any Ordinary member, except repayment of out-of-pocket expenses and interest, at the rate aforesaid on money lent or reasonable and proper rent for premises demised or let to the Association.
